

THEME 6 OPEN YOUR HEART VOCABULARY WORKSHEET (SPICE UP)

A. Guess the meaning of the bold words/phrases and choose the correct option.

- The detective questioned the suspect of the case.
 - a person thought to be innocent of a crime
 - a person thought to be guilty of a crime
- She has an alibi for the whole weekend that she was out of town.
 - The proof that a person was in another place at the time of the crime
 - The proof that a person was at the crime scene
- The police are still looking for a vital clue for the bank robbery.
 - false information that is given by the suspects about a case
 - an object, a piece of evidence or some information that helps someone solve a crime
- Jerry decided to come clean and let the teacher know that he hadn't finished the project.
 - to keep something as a secret
 - to tell the truth

B. Read the text and complete the blanks with the words/phrases below. One is extra.

big heart / vendor / act / got back / over the moon / earth angels / compassionate / handed / leave

Two firefighters were waiting in line at a fast food restaurant when the siren sounded on their fire truck parked outside. There must have been a fire somewhere around. As they rushed to _____, two teenagers who had just received their order _____ their food to the firemen. "What a _____ you have!" one of the firefighters said kindly. The two teens _____ in line to reorder. The manager who saw their selfless _____ refused to take their money and thanked them for their _____ hearts. "Today, _____ are here in my restaurant," he shouted with a big smile on his face. Everybody standing in line gave a big applause. It was so clear that the two teens were _____

C. Read the sayings and write the correct words in the blanks. One is extra.

selflessly / language / humanity / hug / kindness / unthinkable

- Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them, _____ cannot survive.
- Kindness is the _____ that the deaf can hear and the blind can see.
- Unexpected _____ is the most powerful and the least costly thing you can give to others.
- Empathy is like giving someone a psychological _____.
- Be the person that makes others feel special and learn how to live _____.

D. Read the paragraph and fill the gaps with the given vocabulary. One is extra.

suspect / alibi / come clean / clue / interrogation

When someone stole her precious diamond necklace, Mrs Gomez hired a detective to solve the mystery. First, the detective decided to learn their _____ and started to question the working staff in the house. He asked where and what they were doing at the time of the theft. Then, he started to examine the house and found a vital _____ which was a pair of gloves. The fingerprints on the gloves were showing that the real _____ was the husband of Mrs Gomez. After long hours of questioning, the husband decided to _____ with everyone and tell the truth.

THEME 6 OPEN YOUR HEART VOCABULARY WORKSHEET ANSWER KEY (SPICE UP)

A. Guess the meaning of the bold words/phrases and choose the correct option.

- The detective questioned the suspect of the case.
 - a person thought to be innocent of a crime
 - a person thought to be guilty of a crime
- She has an alibi for the whole weekend that she was out of town.
 - The proof that a person was in another place at the time of the crime
 - The proof that a person was at the crime scene
- The police are still looking for a vital clue for the bank robbery.
 - false information that is given by the suspects about a case
 - an object, a piece of evidence or some information that helps someone solve a crime
- Jerry decided to come clean and let the teacher know that he hadn't finished the project.
 - to keep something as a secret
 - to tell the truth

B. Read the text and complete the blanks with the words/phrases below. One is extra.

big heart / vendor / act / got back / over the moon / earth angels / compassionate / handed / leave

Two firefighters were waiting in line at a fast food restaurant when the siren sounded on their fire truck parked outside. There must have been a fire somewhere around. As they rushed to leave two teenagers who had just received their order handed their food to the firemen. "What a big heart you have!" one of the firefighters said kindly. The two teens got back in line to reorder. The manager who saw their selfless act refused to take their money and thanked them for their compassionate hearts. "Today, earth angels are here in my restaurant," he shouted with a big smile on his face. Everybody standing in line gave a big applause. It was so clear that the two teens were over the moon

C. Read the sayings and write the correct words in the blanks. One is extra.

selflessly / language / humanity / hug / kindness / unthinkable

- Love and compassion are necessities, not luxuries. Without them, humanity cannot survive.
- Kindness is the language that the deaf can hear and the blind can see.
- Unexpected kindness is the most powerful and the least costly thing you can give to others.
- Empathy is like giving someone a psychological hug.
- Be the person that makes others feel special and learn how to live selflessly

D. Read the paragraph and fill the gaps with the given vocabulary. One is extra.

suspect / alibi / come clean / clue / interrogation

When someone stole her precious diamond necklace, Mrs Gomez hired a detective to solve the mystery. First, the detective decided to learn their alibi and started to question the working staff in the house. He asked where and what they were doing at the time of the theft. Then, he started to examine the house and found a vital clue which was a pair of gloves. The fingerprints on the gloves were showing that the real suspect was the husband of Mrs Gomez. After long hours of questioning, the husband decided to come clean with everyone and tell the truth.