

THEME 3 HUMAN RIGHTS LISTENING SKILL (NOTIFIER)

A. Listen and complete the dialog. (Tapescript 3.1 Workbook)

Mom: Jane, you don't look well. Is everything OK? It must be about your first day at work.

Jane: That's right, Mom. I don't feel good. It was a tough day.

Mom: Come on, honey! Tell me what happened.

Jane: First, the parking lot for the disabled was occupied, and the wheelchair ramp was too steep. That's not all. The tables at the cafeteria were spaced tightly. The mirror in the restroom was mounted a bit high. That's the summary of my perfect day.

Mom: Oh, Jane, calm down honey, and remember how strong you are! Now, let's go step by step. _____ use the subway instead of driving to work?

Jane: That's great. Then, I won't have to deal with the parking lot issues. What about the wheelchair ramp?

Mom: _____ talking to the officials about that. I'm sure, they will do their best.

Jane: I hope so, Mom.

Mom: And, about the cafeteria, _____ ask the management for a disabled-friendly design.

Jane: That'll be good, after all, we spend our breaks there.

Mom: And, here is the last thing, the mirror. _____ anything about it. You don't need mirrors. You are already very beautiful.

Jane: Come on, Mom. That's your view.

Mom: You can use your own small mirror.

Jane: Oh, Mom, you are the best one on Earth. How lucky I am to have you.

Mom: The good luck is mine, honey. I have you.

Tapescript 3.1 (Workbook)

Mom: Jane, you don't look well. Is everything OK? It must be about your first day at work.

Jane: That's right, Mom. I don't feel good. It was a tough day.

Mom: Come on, honey! Tell me what happened.

Jane: First, the parking lot for the disabled was occupied, and the wheelchair ramp was too steep. That's not all. The tables at the cafeteria were spaced tightly. The mirror in the restroom was mounted a bit high. That's the summary of my perfect day.

Mom: Oh, Jane, calm down honey, and remember how strong you are! Now, let's go step by step. Why don't you use the subway instead of driving to work?

Jane: That's great. Then, I won't have to deal with the parking lot issues. What about the wheelchair ramp?

Mom: I suggest talking to the officials about that. I'm sure, they will do their best.

Jane: I hope so, Mom.

Mom: And, about the cafeteria, we should ask the management for a disabled-friendly design.

Jane: That'll be good, after all, we spend our breaks there.

Mom: And, here is the last thing, the mirror. Let's not do anything about it. You don't need mirrors. You are already very beautiful.

Jane: Come on, Mom. That's your view.

Mom: You can use your own small mirror.

Jane: Oh, Mom, you are the best one on Earth. How lucky I am to have you.

Mom: The good luck is mine, honey. I have you.