In recent years, technology has developed very quickly. Almost everyone has computers, _____ and smart phones. As a result, people do not prefer face-to-face communication. Instead, they prefer to communicate on _____ platforms on their electronic _____.

Especially, teenagers spend a lot of time _____ talking to their friends. According to recent research, teenagers mostly use _____ tools instead of doing research for their school work. Also, teenagers go to bed late and only become _____ when they are sleeping. Another problem about unsupervised use of the Internet by teenagers is _____. That is, generally children and teenagers use cell phones, e-mail, or social networking sites such as Facebook and Twitter to stalk, threaten or frighten someone. This is terrible! We must do something about this destructive habit before it's too late!
